Event: Top Gun Dinner

Congratulations Top Guns: Jay Lamori, Raul Munoz, Jason Parker, Randy Suzuki, and Phil Espanto.

Once again, per San Gabriel Valley APA tradition. Our Spring, 2006 top guns and their dates or freeloading partners in crime met up in San Dimas at Pinnacle Peak (Home of the 30 oz. Trail Boss T-Bone). The gang had a great time and rolled out of the place a little worn out after choking down all that awesome carnage. Can't wait till we do it again next session. Who's coming? Almost forgot, we also had a little side action between Gary "The Ski Mask" Sunda and Randy "The Drunken Master" Suzuki. The prop bet: Drunken Master attempts to finish the 30 oz T-Bone beast in 6 minutes or less. The result: It wasn't in the cards for Drunken Master that evening; he polished his "boss" in 7 minutes and fell a full minute short of his target time. Not sure if he ever wants to try that again. If any of you are interested, we do have some video clips of the attempt on youtube. If any of you are up to try something stupid and dumb (like this), please make sure we know about it so we can capture on video.
